LEARNER LEVEL IDENTIFICATION POLICY

PURPOSE

The institution has specific parameters to assess the learner level of students and the process is conducted as soon as the students join the institution. A student after attending the orientation class is given an evaluation test. Based on the criteria formulated, the students are grouped into advanced, moderate and minimal learners. Special programs are organised for different categories so as to enhance their skill levels. Students are assigned mentors who supervise the students and undertake motivational activities, do continuous monitoring and guide the student for a holistic and successful completion of their curriculum. It's a continuing process till the student exits the course.

CRITERIA

1. Learner level identification process starts from the orientation class itself.
2. Learner level identification process involves all the teaching staff members of the department who conduct the class throughout the course.
3. Programs for different learner types.

4. Based on the above criterias, the students are identified by teaching staffs and are then categorized into advanced, moderate and minimal learners.
5. The students are also encouraged to attempt advanced learning activities such as 3-D model preparation, stimulators exercise based upon their aptitude.
6. In order to involve in the activity of the learner level identification, students are allotted to have activity in the class like peer led teaching, process oriented guided inquiry learning and critical pedagogy.
7. In order to make the level of identification effective, group of students are inducted into the mentor- mentee programme. Each mentor is responsible for further encouragements and improvement of the group of students.
8. For each group of students, the learner level identification is done. Mentor of the students will initiate the process for the specialised projects. Projects for minimal learners will include special classes, remedial coaching and remedial exam to help them achieve in the designated time.
9. For students who need improvement after the learner level identification is provided with study notes and learning management system. Students are provided with group study classes, individual doubt clearing sessions and additional study time. Library is provided to help them to utilise the spare time for their benefits.
