

ORIENTATION POLICY

AIM

- To equip the student to handle patients in comprehensive clinics
- To help in the transition from preclinical stage to clinical management
- To familiarise with the standard treatment protocols in Case History Taking
- To have a knowhow on the infection control protocols and Do's and Don't's in Dental Clinics
- To know how to write a prescription , effects and side effects of medications
- To blend in to comprehensive Patient Management Care
- To develop a knowledge of the method of functioning of different departments
- To acquaint themselves the armamentarium used by various specialities in dentistry

PRIMARY OBJECTIVES

- To have a treatment plan custom fit to the primary and secondary needs of the patient
- To get acquainted with Comprehensive clinic ,Faculty and Non teaching Faculty
- To be responsible and accountable to the patient right from start to finish
- To help in formulation of treatment plan mentored by the faculty

SECONDARY OBJECTIVES

- To create a culture inside a batch where equal opportunities for learning are provided for all
- To instil the concept of Interdisciplinary learning among students
- To be committed to learning , providing treatment care and be empathetic towards the patient
- To deliver optimum treatment to patients in a compassionate manner

STEPS IN ORIENTATION

- Orientation posting schedule for 3 days in each comprehensive department
- Orientation theory classes by each clinical department faculty
- Create student awareness about roles and responsibilities of clinical department
- Fully Oriented students start clinical postings to attend to patients

COURSE OUTCOME OF ORIENTATION

- To develop adept students in handling basic dental procedure
- To differentiate between wrong and right
- To develop the art of being self-critical before monitoring by faculty

- To be receptive in learning new concepts and receptive to constructive criticism from faculty